

CABLE NEWS

From All Parts of the Old World.

STANLEY.

Colonel Gordon's Report Concerning the American Explorer in Africa.

Winslow Kept Waiting for Secretary Fish's Reply to Lord Derby's Note.

THE SALONICA AGITATION SUBSIDING.

Fenian Amnesty a Matter of Doubt with Premier Disraeli.

DEADLY DUELS.

The Sultan of Zanzibar Guarantees the Suppression of the Slave Trade.

STANLEY.

COLONEL GORDON'S REPORT OF THE AMERICAN EXPLORER IN AFRICA.

[SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE HERALD BY CABLE.]

LONDON, May 16, 1876.
Mr. Edward Marston, of the firm of Sampson Low, Marston & Co., received to-day a letter from Colonel Gordon, the African traveller, dated on the 9th of March.

WHAT HE SAYS ABOUT STANLEY.

Colonel Gordon states that he received from Mr. Stanley, near Mtesa, an open envelope addressed in the handwriting of Mr. H. M. Stanley, the American explorer, containing some badly constructed English, written in an unknown hand, but he heard nothing of Stanley.

TURKEY.

AN AMERICAN MAN-OF-WAR AT SEA FOR SALONICA.

[SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE HERALD BY CABLE.]

NICE, May 16, 1876.
Rear Admiral John L. Worden, of the United States Navy, holding his flag on board the American war ship Franklin, sailed from this port to-day for Salonica.

NOTES ARRESTED—THE AGITATION AT SALONICA SUBSIDING.

LONDON, May 16, 1876.
Advices from Salonica say the total number of arrests in connection with the outrage there have been fifty-four.

The preliminary inquiry has commenced and the excitement in the town is gradually subsiding.

ENGLAND.

WINSLOW STILL WAITING HIS DISCHARGE—LORD DERBY HAS NOT HEARD FROM WASHINGTON—DISRAELI DOUBTFUL ON THE FENIAN AMNESTY QUESTION—NO MARKET FOR MONEY.

LONDON, May 16, 1876.
In the House of Commons to-day Mr. Bourke, Under Secretary for the Foreign Department, replying to a question of Sir William Harcourt, liberal member for the city of Oxford, said Winslow was still in custody, the judge having consented to remand him in consequence of Attorney General Holker's statement that Lord Derby's despatch had not reached Washington on Saturday last.

Sir William Harcourt observed that this was not an answer to his question as to whether the government had come to a final decision in the premises.

Mr. Bourke replied that it might have been inferred that no final decision could be made until the reply to Lord Derby's despatch arrived. The latter reached Washington on Monday or Tuesday. The papers will be laid on the table when the correspondence is closed.

THE FENIAN AMNESTY QUESTION.
The Manchester Guardian's London correspondent says the petition of the members of Parliament for the release of the Fenian prisoners will be presented to Mr. Disraeli on Wednesday.

It is the general expectation among the Irish members that, although the government will not consent to a full amnesty, it will do something toward meeting the petitioners' prayer. Some reports profess to trace such belief to outragings of the Ministers, but as the story was current before the division in the House of Commons on Sir Henry James' motion of censure in regard to the Royal Titles Proclamation, when the votes of the Irish members were needed, the report may be set at rest for a purpose which has already been accomplished, and may, therefore, prove untrustworthy.

MONEY NOT WANTED ON 'CHANGE.
The financiers say practically there is no market for money on the Stock Exchange.

ASIAN AND EUROPEAN VAPORS TO THE EASTERS.

Several Indian Rajas belonging to the suite of Sir Salar Jung, Prime Minister of the Nizam of Hyderabad, visited the Queen at Windsor to-day. Sir Salar himself is on his way to England, and will arrive shortly.

The Empress of Germany left here to-day on her return home.

The ex-king of Hanover, together with his family and suite, will arrive in London to-night.

The ex-king is travelling incognito.

WEATHER REPORT.
The weather to-day is dull.

THE CENTENNIAL RIFLE MATCH.

IRISH SHARPSHOOTERS PRACTICE FOR PLACES ON THE TEAM FOR AMERICA.

DUBLIN, May 16, 1876.

In the preliminary competition at Dundalk for the selection of the Irish Centennial rifle team, the Dublin team beat the Belfast marksmen 61 points, Johnson, who took part in the international match of 1875, at Dollymount, making the highest score.

THE FINAL COMPETITION.

The final competition commenced during the last week in June, on the Murragh, county Wicklow, at which time places in the Elcho Challenge Shield team and in the team to contest for the cup presented by Colonel Gifford's team of 1875 will also be competed for.

LIKELY TO BE CHOSEN.

Messrs. Johnson, Wilson, Trill, Pollock and Milner will probably gain places in the team to go to America.

FRANCE.

M. DE MARCHI, MINISTER OF THE INTERIOR—A BONAPARTIST ELECTED.

PARIS, May 16, 1876.

M. de Marchi's appointment as Minister of the Interior has been gazetted.

ANOTHER BONAPARTIST ELECTED.

M. Gavini, Bonapartist, has been elected to the Chamber of Deputies from the town of Corte, Corsica.

THE QUESTION OF AMNESTY UNDER DEBATE.

VERMILLES, May 16, 1876.

The motion for amnesty was discussed by the Chamber of Deputies to-day.

MM. Clemenceau and Lockroy, radicals, advocated amnesty.

The moderate republicans opposed it. They pointed

THE MEXICAN REVOLUTIONISTS.

RECORDED THE MARCH ON MATAMORAS—THREAT OF THE REVOLUTIONISTS TO BURN THE CITY IF THEY CANNOT DEFEND IT—REVOLUTIONARY ATTACK ON LAREDO—A STORE ROBBED BY FEDERAL OFFICERS.

BROWNVILLE, TEX., May 16, 1876.

General Escobedo is within sixty miles of Matamoros with a force of 2,500 strong. He has been supplied from this side with munitions of war and everything required by an army in the field.

PREPARATIONS FOR DEFENCE.

All able-bodied men have been conscripted for the defence of Matamoros.

Four thousand non-combatants are on this side, and great excitement exists.

THE BLACK FLAG.

was raised at Laredo by the federal commander on Sunday last.

The federal officers went to the store of Sanchez & Salinas and, with pistols at the heads of the clerks and cashier, held them at bay while their subordinates robbed the establishment.

ATTEMPT TO CAPTURE LAREDO.

An attempt to capture the town by the Diaz party failed. Several shots came to this side of the river. No damage was done. Another lot of arms has been seized by the revolutionists, who

THREATEN TO BURN MATAMORAS.

If they cannot defend it. The government troops are well disciplined and in good condition, but their horses are worn out for want of water and forage.

Gonzales, the revolutionary commander in Matamoros, will fight to the bitter end.

CUBA.

REASONABLE RAINS A RELIEF TO AGRICULTURE.

HAVANA, May 16, 1876.

The drought which has prevailed for some time has ceased. Rains are falling all over the island.

STAMPS AND STAMPED DOCUMENTS TO BE PAYABLE IN GOLD.

A decree has been issued declaring that since contributions, with the exception of the ten per cent amortization tax, were decreed to be payable in gold, stamps and stamped paper have enjoyed an unjust exception, and the Treasury has in consequence suffered losses; therefore all stamped documents are to be henceforth payable in gold or its equivalent in currency, taken at 100 per cent premium.

AN ASSASSIN-INCENDIARY EXECUTED.

Ortega, the assassin and incendiary, was executed to-day on the prison grounds.

JAPAN AND CHINA.

RELATIONS TO THE CORREAN—A ROYAL TOUR—A COMMISSIONER FOR PHILADELPHIA—PRO-DUCT OF SILVER—PIRACY AND BURDER—THE UNITED STATES NAVAL FLAG.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 16, 1876.

The advice by the Qing Lee from Japan contains nothing of political importance.

The Mikado was shortly to make a tour around the coasts of Japan.

CORREAN EMBASSY.

It was reported that an embassy, consisting of twenty or thirty persons, from the Corea, were en route to Yokohama.

PROSECUTIONS AGAINST THE OPPOSITION PRESS CONTINUED.

HEAD MONEY.

In spite of the representations of the foreign Ministers the government had declined to abolish the tax on passengers by foreign bound steamers.

THE AMERICAN EXHIBITION.

Dr. Wagner, who acted in a similar capacity at Vienna, had been sent to the Philadelphia Exhibition to take note of anything which might be of service to Japan.

EARTHQUAKE.

Several earthquake shocks, some of them quite severe, had occurred at Tokio.

AN AMERICAN WAS VESSEL LARKY.

The United States ship Saco, which left Yokohama for home on April 15, returned to that port on the 19th, having discovered a leak which necessitated the use of both steam and hand pumps to keep her clear of water. She was docked.

SILVER.

The Yokosuka silver mine was being worked with great success with foreign machinery. Large and fine buildings in foreign style, were being erected.

CHINA.

Advices from China to the 17th of April say—Work is progressing by English builders on the wreck of the Pacific Mail steamer Japan for the recovery of treasure.

ASSAULTS ON CHRISTIANS.

There have been renewed assaults on native Christians in the interior towns.

REVOLUTED PROTEST.

The recent investigation shows that during the Mahomedan rebellion in Yun-nan one-half of the population of the Province were destroyed.

GERMAN INTIMIDATION GAME.

A report is current in diplomatic circles that the German agitation of the Anna affair is a pretext for assembling a large force to intimidate the Chinese government into a revision of the German treaty.

TWO HUNDRED PASSENGERS DROWNED.

A new day passenger steamer was upset by a squall near Hong Kong on the 21st of April. Upward of 200 Chinese were drowned.

ACCIDENT TO THE ANKLETON.

The United States ship Ashcroft, sailing from Shanghai to Hong Kong, struck on a rock during a fog in Hainan Straits, but got off without serious damage.

PIRATES ON A CHINESE STEAMER—FIFTEEN PERSONS KILLED.

The steamship Pella, belonging to Chinese merchants, was seized by pirates, who were among her passengers, on March 29, while sailing from Saigon to Cambodia. The captain and fourteen others were murdered and ten escaped wounded. The ship was plundered and abandoned.

FORMIDABLE DEFENSIVE WORKS COMPLETED.

The fortifications at Sincing, on the Peiho River, between Taku and Tien Tsin, have just been completed. The work occupied 10,000 soldiers three years. The Commander-in-Chief now expects that the ascent of foreign fleets can be effectually checked.

MINISTER SEWARD'S HEALTH.

The health of Mr. Seward, the American Minister, is improving. He proceeds immediately to Peking.

CHINESE ROYALTY.

Kung-Hoo, the chief poet in the island of Hainan, was opened to British trade and a vice-consulate established on the 1st of April.

AFFAIRS IN WESTERN CHINA.

In the great financial difficulty Governor General Tso gives the cost of the impending campaign near Kashgar at 50,000,000 taels. He is already in arrears 27,000,000 taels. The Viceroy of Kansu requires 15,000,000 taels for the suppression of local rebellions. Heavy liabilities have been incurred toward the Russians at Li for supplies furnished them. The central government is powerless to raise the required amount and proposes to appeal to the viceroys of the wealthiest provinces.

LOUISIANA BONDS.

NEW ORLEANS, May 16, 1876.

A despatch from Governor Kellogg says the Governing Committee of the New York Stock Exchange have agreed to place, from Louisiana bonds on the call list of the exchange, from which they have been excluded for the past two years.

A CRIPPLED RAILROAD.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 16, 1876.

Colonel D. H. Armstrong, one of the promoters of the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad, was before the State Board of Equalization yesterday, and made a statement regarding that road. He said the bonded debt is $17,350,000, the amount of gold interest $7,120 and of currency interest $116,500. The company cannot pay the next July interest on the first mortgage bonds of $7,800,000. The witness would not give ten cents on the dollar of the bonded debt, and the road would not be able to pay interest on it until extended to the Pacific coast. It hardly pays running expenses, and in his opinion will have to be sold out in October next.

STATE CONVENTIONS.

Exciting Meetings in Cincinnati Last Night.

PREPARING FOR THE FIGHT OF TO-DAY.

Allen, Blaine and Bristow Said To Be the Favorites.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, May 16, 1876.

The Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-morrow and promises to be the strongest and most interesting State gathering of the kind that has ever met in the State. The fight between the

Democratic State Convention for the election of four delegates at large to the National Convention and the nomination of a candidate for Secretary of State, of Supreme Judge and member of Board of Public Works meet here to-m